

2nd ZJU Scholars Summer Research Program Zhejiang University

18 June -- 13 August, 2019, Hangzhou, China

Program Overview

In the summer of 2019, Zhejiang University will hold the 2nd ZJU Scholars Summer Research Program for talented students from selected partner universities with the aim of promoting existing academic ties among its strategic partners and providing cutting-edge research experience to the young generation of future leaders and experts worldwide.

This year, for each selected partner institution, ZJU will provide up to 2 students with a scholarship to participate in a research project of their choice at ZJU for 8 weeks from June 18th to Aug. 13th, 2019.

The scholarship includes:

- ✓ Waived application fee and program tuition fee
- ✓ Free on-campus accommodation from June 17th to Aug. 14th, 2019 (double room)
- ✓ A living allowance of 2800 RMB (approximately 400 USD) per person

Successful applicants will participate in a research project under the guidance of a renowned ZJU professor and work closely with post docs, postgraduate and senior undergraduate students from the same research team. During the 8-week program, participants will join an elite cohort of domestic students in a dynamic, inspiring environment and become an integral part of the innovative and diversified ZJU community ever since!
