

MA Thesis Supervisors at Rhetoric, CC, Aarhus Universitet

Below is a list of thesis supervisors at Rhetoric. The student can be informed about possible thesis supervisors by visiting the supervisors' AU websites. Here, the supervisors' research areas, publications and projects, etc. are regularly updated.

It is the head of department who allocate supervisors taking into account the topic area of the thesis and the supervisors' other work tasks. All applications for a thesis supervisor must consist of a 1st, 2nd and 3rd priority. Unfortunately, there is no guarantee that you can obtain the supervisor who has your first priority.

Application form \(link\).

You are free to discuss the subject area with potential supervisors before you send in your application for thesis supervisor. If you have done this, then answer "yes" to the question "The topic has been discussed with supervisor".

However, it is the head of department who makes the final allocation of thesis supervisors. Therefore students and potential supervisors cannot make final agreements on supervision. It is also possible to apply for a thesis supervisor from another programme at Aarhus University

Position	Name (incl. link to AU website)
Assistant Professor	Marcia Clare Allison
Associate professor	Stefan Iversen
Associate professor	Marie Lund
Associate professor	Carsten Madsen
Associate professor	Esben Bjerggaard Nielsen
Teaching Associate Professor	Sofie Venge Madsen