

Institution	The University of Melbourne
Academic calendar	Autumn Semester: Mid July – Late November Spring Semester: February – Late June
Full academic programme	Undergraduate level: Undergraduate degrees have a duration of 3 years, and students must complete 300 credits. A standard full-time load for undergraduate level students is 50 credits per semester. Most courses are 12,5 credits. Graduate level: Graduate diploma degrees have a duration of 1 year, and students must complete 100 credits. A standard full-time load for graduate level students is 50 credits per semester. Most courses are 12,5 credits.
Course catalogue	https://handbook.unimelb.edu.au/search
Course level	Each subject has a subject code that lists four letters followed by four numbers such as MGMT90026. The subject code contains the subject's year level and specialisation. The four letters of a subject code indicate the area of study of the subject. For example, all subject codes that commence with PSYC refer to psychology subjects, whilst all subjects that commence with MUSI are music subjects. The first number in the subject code refers to the year level of the subject. Numbers 1 through 6 refer to undergraduate subject year levels, whilst 7, 8 and 9 refer to graduate study. For example, ANCW20010 is a second-year undergraduate subject, whilst FNCE90005 is a graduate subject.
Recommendation	Undergraduate and graduate level 4 courses (each 12,5 credits) per semester will be transferred with 30 ECTS.
ECTS equivalency	Undergraduate and graduate level: 50 credits = 30 ECTS