

INTRODUCTION DAY 2026

For new MSc students in Engineering

When: Friday August 21, 2026

Where: Finlandsgade 20, 8200 Aarhus N. Building 5124, room 038 – see map

Part 1 from 10 am-12 pm: For students who are new at AU

10:00	Welcome, by student counselor and international mentor/student
10:10	Life as a student at Mechanical Engineering – what to expect and how to thrive AU-culture and academic expectations How the semester is structured Heads up about important rules Exam formats and grading systems
11:00	Practical Help and Student Resources Setting up IT accounts, Wi-Fi, info about campus facilities (labs, study spaces) Tips and tricks from other international students
11:45	Break – getting ready for part 2

Part 2 from 12-16 pm: For all students starting their Master's programme

12:00	Your Master's programme – what to expect Your Head of Degree Programme will introduce you to your new programme in general. There will also be time to take another look at your Master's contract and course registration – are you all set to begin your classes?
12:45	Lunch break Your department offers lunch
13:15	What you need to know as a Master student Presentation by your student counsellor
13:30	Presentation of labs and facilities Presentation by Head of Programme
14:15	Social gathering - Quiz Get to know your fellow students through informal academic and social competition. Laugh, learn, and play together.
15:30 – 16.00	Hangout and final questions. See you soon