Beskriv 2-3 vellykkede forløb/forhold, der kan være inspiration for andre	Media and Culture Studies (BA, 1st semester + BA tilvalg, 1st semester): The course gets a good deal of praise, and students refer to a wide range of things they have taken from it: from formalist film analysis to understandings of media industries, from descriptive and analytical terminology to film-making techniques. Literatures in English 1: Form and Genre: All of the seminar groups seem to have functioned reasonably well. Students mention a wide range of things learnt from the course, and many express enjoyment and appreciation, both with the material and the teaching. Phonetics and Phonology (BA): Students found the content of the course interesting and potentially useful, especially learning the phonetic alphabet and transcribing. They also thought they gained a better awareness and understanding of their own pronunciation.
