Introduction

The formal basis of the Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Business Administration was formulated in the Danish Ministry of Science, Innovation and Higher Education Ministerial order no. 814 of 29 June 2010 on bachelor and master's programmes (candidatus) at universities.

This study guide contains general information about the study programme, rules and regulations, etc. Detailed course and exam descriptions can be found in the course catalogue which you can access via the Student Portal.

If you have specific questions concerning your programme, we recommend that you consult the student counsellors for this particular field of study. These counsellors are all older students who advise prospective and current students on all matters concerning the programme. The student counsellors will also be able to assist in questions regarding cases of exemptions, procedures for complaints, etc.

Board of Studies for Economics and Business Administration

Qualification description

The research-based BSc study programme in Economics and Business Administration which is prescribed to 3 years of full-time studies (=180 ECTS) consists of a Part 1 (60 ECTS) and a Part 2 (120 ECTS).

The programme entitles the graduate to the title: Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration.

In addition to the general Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration the study programme includes two alternative variants:

- Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration - International Management
- Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration – Sustainability

The study programme gives graduates immediate business-relevant qualifications that enable them to handle issues pertaining to business administration in companies and organisations in both the private and public sectors. The programme qualifies the graduate for enrolment in the MSc study programme in Economics and Business Administration, the MSc study programme in Business Economics and Auditing as well as several other MSc programmes in the social sciences.

Throughout the studies, the student acquires knowledge of theory, methodology and practice within business administration that qualifies to

- Understand and reflect on theories, methodologies and practice
- Assess theoretical and practical issues and apply relevant analysis and solution models
- Handle complex issues in study and work-related contexts
- Formulate/communicate specialist issues and solution models
- Participate in academic and interdisciplinary collaboration in an independent manner
- Identify own learning needs and plan own learning

Structure of the programme

The BSc study programme in Economics and Business Administration which is prescribed to 3 years of full-time studies (=180 ECTS) consists of a Part 1 (60 ECTS) which must be passed separately and a Part 2 (120 ECTS).

In addition to the general Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration the study programme includes two alternative variants:

- Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration - International Management
- Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Economics and Business Administration – Sustainability

Part 1 is shared by the 3 variants. The same thing applies for the subjects in Part 2 except for International Economics, Industrial Economics, Finance II, the Seminar in Descriptive Economics and the Seminar in Business Studies which in the two variants “International Management” and “Sustainability” are replaced with special subjects for these variants.

Each subject carries a weight of 5 ECTS-credits apart from the Bachelor's Thesis, which carries a weight of 20 ECTS-credits and the subject International Management (BSc in Economics and Business Administration - International Management) which carries a weight of 10 ECTS-credits.

For further description of the structure see schematic outline.

The tests after the 1st semester must be passed in January while the tests after the 2nd semester must be passed in May/June.

If the Department so desires, any written exams may be converted into oral exams if only ten or less students have registered for the exam before the deadline. If a written exam is converted into an oral exam, no supplementary materials are permitted at the exam, unless otherwise stated. Announcement about conversion of a written exam into an oral exam will be given by notice on the relevant bulletin board in connection with the announcement of the general exam plan.

Description of exams

For a closer description of exams - see the Course Catalogue.

Examination

The written exams will be assessed by a teacher according to the 7-point scale. However, the test in Financial Accounting will be assessed by a teacher and an external examiner.

The group assignment and the oral test in Information Systems for Business will be assessed by the teacher and an external examiner according to the 7-point scale. The oral test is passed in English.

A group assignment can be defended at an oral group exam with the maximum number of 4 students. The course responsible decides whether the oral defence is to take place as a group exam. The student, however, is entitled to hand in an individual written paper and to choose an individual oral exam. The student also has the right to individualisation of written papers.

Where written tasks or exams are concerned, the professional assessment reflects the linguistic clarity and skill by which the professional substance is expounded. By the assessment of thesis the linguistic clarity and skill may, under special circumstances, be subject to independent evaluation.

Supplementary material

It appears from the course descriptions whether supplementary materials are allowed and what supplementary materials are allowed. By written exams where no supplementary materials are allowed the student is allowed to bring a pocket calculator. The pocket calculator's memory must be empty at the beginning of the test (spot checking will be made).

Part one – examination rules and regulations

Within the first year of the admission the student has to be signed up for all Part One exams

Minimum requirements for passing the exams

To pass Part One a minimum average mark of 2.0 must be obtained. The minimum mark required in each separate exam is 00. The general average is calculated according to the weighting system indicated in the index of exams.

Once the entire Part One exam has been passed, it is not possible to participate in any further Part One exams even if the marks in one or more individual exams are 00.

Part one must be passed before the end of the second year of study.

It is recommended that the student has passed Part one before starting on Part two. If the student contemplates starting on Part two before having passed Part one, the student should contact the Student Counsellor before making a final decision.

Re-examination

Students may only participate in any exams three times. Under certain circumstances, The Board of Studies for Economics and Business Administration may allow additional examination attempts.

It is not possible to be re-examined in tests for which the mark of 02 has been obtained, whereas re-examination in tests where the mark of -3 has been given is compulsory.

In connection with all Part one-exams after the 1st semester it is possible - besides applying for re-examination in the next ordinary exam - to apply for re-examination in February.

In connection with all Part one-exams after the 2nd Semester it is possible - besides applying for re-examination in the next ordinary exam - to apply for re-examination in August.

It is a prerequisite for participation in the re-examination in February/August that you have been registered for and used an attempt at the ordinary exam in the same exam period.

By re-exam in February in the test in Information Systems for Business the test is carried through as an individual 72 hours home assignment.

Part two - teaching

Part Two of the Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration is planned to last two years (= 120 ECTS) and is subdivided into semesters 3-6. Teaching involves lectures, tutorials - including tutorials run by student teaching assistants - seminars and a Bachelor's Thesis.

Participation in the seminar sessions is compulsory. After preceding written application and subsequent written documentation the seminar leader/the seminar co-ordinator may approve one case of absence. Only the Board of Studies for Economics and Business Administration can approve further cases of absence based on a written application.

Electives

In addition to the electives described in the Course Catalogue it is possible to choose courses from other bachelor programmes at Aarhus University after prior acceptance from the Board of Studies. Besides it is possible to choose courses at other Danish and foreign universities.

For information about registration for electives, please consult the Student Portal. Note that it is not possible to cancel an elective for which the evaluation has already started.

If a written exam is converted into an oral exam, no supplementary materials are permitted at the exam, unless otherwise stated.

Announcement about conversion of a written exam into an oral exam will be given by notice on the relevant bulletin board immediately after the expiry of the deadline.

Description of exams

For a closer description of exams - see the Course Catalogue.

Examination

A teacher or a teacher and an external examiner will assess exams according to the 7-point scale. Please see Index of exams.

A teacher/supervisor will assess the seminar papers according to the 7-point scale. It is a prerequisite for assessment of a seminar paper that participation in the seminar sessions has been approved.

As far as electives are concerned it applies, that written tests are assessed by a teacher alone while oral tests are assessed by a teacher and an internal/external examiner.

The supervisor(s) and an external examiner will assess the Bachelor's Thesis incl. the oral examination.

A group assignment can be defended at an oral group exam with the maximum number of 4 students. The course responsible decides whether the oral defence is to take place as a group exam. The student, however, is entitled to hand in an individual written paper and to choose an individual oral exam. The student also has the right to individualisation of written papers.

Where written tasks or exams are concerned, the academic assessment reflects the linguistic clarity and skill by which the academic substance is expounded. By the assessment of thesis the linguistic clarity and skill may, under special circumstances, be subject to independent evaluation.

Supplementary material

It appears from the course descriptions whether supplementary materials are allowed and what supplementary materials are allowed. By written exams where no supplementary materials are allowed the student is allowed to bring a pocket calculator. The pocket calculator's memory must be empty at the beginning of the test (spot checking will be made).

As a starting point, the oral exams are without preparation and no supplementary materials are permitted.

By written exams where no supplementary materials are permitted the student is allowed to bring a pocket calculator. The pocket calculator's memory must be empty at the beginning of the test (spot checking will be made).

Part two – examination rules and regulations

It is recommended to take the Part Two exams in the order according to the description of exams.

The tests are placed once a year with a possibility of participating in a special re-examination in February/August.

The test in the Bachelor's Thesis takes place once a year with a possibility of participating in a special re-examination in the autumn semester. The deadline for handing in of the Bachelor's Thesis is then 1 December.

It is a prerequisite for participation in the re-examination in February/August that you have been registered for and used an attempt at the ordinary exam in the same exam period.

Minimum requirements for passing the exams

For passing the BSc in Economics and Business Administration a general average mark of 2.0 must be obtained and the minimum mark required in each separate exam is 00. The general average mark is calculated according to the weighting system indicated in the index of exams for Part 1 and 2. Besides this, the Bachelor's Thesis must be passed with at least 02.

As long as the student has not passed the programme, the student may apply for re-examination in individual exams where the mark 02 or above has not been obtained. As for individual exams where the mark 02 or above has been obtained, it is not possible to be re-examined.

Re-exams

Students may only participate in any exam three times.

Under certain circumstances, The Board of Studies for Economics and Business Administration may allow additional examination attempts.

No re-exam is possible in tests awarded the grade 02 whereas re-exam is compulsory in tests awarded the grade -3.

In connection with all Part two-exams it is possible - besides applying for re-examination in the ordinary exam - to apply for re-examination in February/August.

It is a prerequisite for participation in the re-examination in February/August that you have been registered for and used an attempt at the ordinary exam in the same exam period.

It is a prerequisite for handing in of a seminar report by the re-exam in February/August that participation in the seminar sessions has been approved. By handing in of a new seminar report in February/August no new participation in the seminar sessions is necessary.

In case of re-examination of the Bachelor's Thesis, the student must hand in another thesis based on a new subject, and the student must participate in renewed oral defence.

By major changes in the curriculum, the student is examined in the old curriculum in three subsequent examination periods – after that the student is tested in the new curriculum regardless of study programme.

Registration for exams

Students may only participate in exams if they have registered for these exams.

Registration for the oral and written tests and the seminars takes place automatically when registering for the course in the relevant semester, while the student her-/himself must register for tests in subjects for which he/she has not previously been registered (make-up exams, re-exams or postponed exams) and for tests at the re-exams in February/August.

For information about registration for exams in courses for which you have not been registered automatically please consult the Student Portal .

Cancellation of registrations for exams must take place no later than one week before the exam takes place/is started. However, cancellation of the seminar series in Business Studies must take place no later than 15 December while cancellation of the seminar series in Marketing must take place no later than 1 August. Tests included in the automatic registration on Part 1 cannot be cancelled

Registration for the Bachelor's Thesis must take place no later than 1 December with a possibility of cancellation until 15 February. The deadline for re-exam is 1 July with a possibility of cancellation until 15 August.

It is the student's own responsibility to check that the registration has actually taken place regardless if the registration has taken place automatically or by the student her-/him self. If any errors are noticed in connection with the registration, the Central Registry has to be informed about it before the deadline stated.

Illness, etc.

Provided illness etc. prevents the student from participating in or completing an exam, seminars, etc., and provided the student applies for it, the Board of Studies for Economics and Business Administration may permit cancellation of this exam after the expiry of the deadline.

Any application claiming illness must be accompanied by a medical certificate, which must cover the day or period in question and must be issued on personal request to the doctor on the same day as the exam or handing-in was supposed to take place.

Rules for handling exam regulation violations

Cheating at oral or written exams (incl. assignments and reports) will cause rejection of the test and in such cases the University may decide to expel the student from all exams in the current examination period. In severe cases, the University may decide to expel the student from his/her study programme.

Exemptions

Students who have passed exams in other study programmes, which cover subjects taught at the BSc in Economics and Business Administration, may be exempted from such exams in the present study programme on application.

In connection with exams held in continuation of the autumn semester, applications for exemption must be submitted to the Board of Studies the Student by 1 October. As for exams held in continuation of the spring semester such applications must be submitted by 1 March.

It is not possible for students to be exempted from exams for which (s)he has already been registered under the present study programme.

On the Exam Certificate it will be stated if the student has been exempted from a particular exam and the total average will be calculated on the basis of the remaining marks.

Special exemptions

In connection with a number of the rules in this Study Guide it has been mentioned that, on application, the Study Committee for Undergraduate Programmes may grant students special exemptions when special conditions speak for it.

In addition to the cases already mentioned there might also be other special cases where unusual conditions speak for a special exemption. Students are advised to contact a Student Counsellor before they apply for such special exemptions.

Complaints

Complaints concerning teaching or examinations are considered by different bodies, depending on the nature of the complaint.

Complaints stating that the teaching has not covered the syllabus are considered by the Study Committee. Students are, however, advised to contact their lecturer/teacher and the relevant head of department first.

Complaints concerning the basis of examinations (exam questions, including their relevance to the syllabus), the result of the assessment and the way the examination is conducted are considered by the Director of Studies. Complaints must be submitted no later than 2 weeks after the announcement of the exam result.
